

Internships

Alphabetical by Organization

- Aurora Center – Program against Sexual Violence 612-626-2929
<http://www1.umn.edu/aurora/>
Focus on Advocacy and Education against sexual assault, relationship violence and stalking.
- Career and Community Learning Center (CCLC) 612-626-2044
<http://www.cclc.umn.edu/>
Connecting U of MN students to community involvement and service-learning opportunities as well as exchanges to other U.S. Campuses.
- Center for Victims of Torture 612-626-1400
<http://www.cvt.org/main.php>
The center is a non-profit organization that provides care to the survivors of politically motivated torture and their family members.
- Chrysalis- A Center for Women 612-870-2420
<http://www.chrysaliswomen.org/>
Chrysalis offers several internship opportunities ranging from chemical dependency to marketing & communications.
- CORPORATEinterns.com 612-767-7200
<http://corporateinterns.com/>
Working with small firms, internet companies, fortune 500 companies as well as public and non-profits, they match individuals with corporate internships according to the individual's goals.
- Courage Center 763-520-0214
<http://www.courage.org/>
Courage Center is a nonprofit organization providing rehabilitation, enrichment, and independent living services for people with physical, sensory, and/or neurological disabilities.
- Face to Face 651-772-5555
<http://www.facetoface.org/>
Face to Face offers many services for young people ages 11 to 23. They are sensitive to young people's needs and offer health care and support services that are high-quality and affordable even without insurance.
- Fairview Medical Center 612-672-6999
http://www.university.fairview.org/Clinical_Services/Mental/Fairview Mental Health Services has been helping people with mental health issues for decades. As the largest provider of behavioral services in the Upper Midwest, they offer progressive treatment services that keep the complete individual in mind. In their programs, they respect culture, family and personal background.

Family & Children's Service

612-341-1651

<http://www.famchildserv.org/>

Building healthy communities one youth or family at a time.

First Call for Help-United Way

612-291-8300

<http://www.211unitedway.org/>

Building healthy communities one youth or family at a time.

Fraser Community Services

612-798-8321

<http://www.fraser.org/>

Empowering all individuals, especially those with developmental disabilities and those at risk for developmental delays, with the life skills necessary to maximize their potential to live enriched and productive lives.

Gantz Wiley Research

612-332-6383

<http://www.gantzwiley.com/>

As experts in stakeholder measurement and application of those measurements to financial performance, Gantz Wiley Research contributes to the success of their clients by helping them better understand and act on the views of their employees and customers. Their commitment to success is clear and strong and is reflected in all they do.

Hand to Heart

612-259-3012

http://www.jeremiahprogram.org

Hand to heart is a Child Development Center and Preschool which extends beyond regular daycare. They focus on school-readiness and social-emotional development as well.

Harriet Tubman Center

612-825-3333

<http://www.harriettubman.org/>

Educating and engaging people and communities to prevent abuse and violence. Challenging systems, policies and practices that keep individuals from living violence-free.

Hennepin County Community Corrections

612-348-6893

Community Corrections operates three correctional facilities (the Adult Corrections Facility, the Juvenile Detention Center and the County Home School), provides adult and juvenile probation services, and provides services to Family Court.

Hennepin County Medical Center612-873-4052<http://www.hcmc.org/education/psychology/welcomepsy.htm>

Several opportunities available, ranging from Pediatric/Newborn ICU to the Medicine Clinic.

Jeremiah Program612-692-8711www.jeremiahprogram.org

The Jeremiah program is a broad-based collaborative community initiative, designed to assist low income mothers with children to help themselves complete their education and achieve economic self-sufficiency through access to affordable housing, childcare, health care, supportive services and meaningful employment.

Legal Assistance for Women612-871-0118, option 1<http://www.chrysaliswomen.org/legal.htm>

Managed through Chrysalis. Program offers multiple areas of legal assistance to women.

Mental Health Association of Minnesota612-331-6840<http://www.mentalhealthmn.org/>

Nonprofit agency dedicated to improving the lives of people with mental illness and promoting mental health for all Minnesotans. Advocating the rights of the mentally ill through individual client advocacy and systems advocacy at the state legislature.

Meriwether Ventures651-917-8322

Residential group homes. Positions include: awake overnight shifts, weekend and support shifts, live-in positions, floaters, and subs.

Metro Internship Program- University YMCA612-676-7700http://www.ymcatwincities.org/locations/universityY/universityY_MetroInternship.asp

Intensive ten-week seminar on corporate social responsibility, organizational change, ethical leadership and power. Followed by a ten-week internship.

Minneapolis Public Schools612.668.3880http://commed.mpls.k12.mn.us/Vol_Services.html

Tutors needed within the Minneapolis public school system. Help tutor students in basic reading and math. Kindergarten through high school.

Neighborhood Involvement Program612-374-3125<http://www.neighborhoodinvolve.org/>

Help provide healthcare and social services to low-income or uninsured people, victims of sexual assault, youth, seniors and the community at large.

OutFront Minnesota612-822-0127<http://www.outfront.org/action/volunteers.html>

Advocating for the gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and allied communities.

People Incorporated651-774-0011<http://www.peopleincorporated.org/Volunteer.htm>

Promoting independence and community integration for people with mental illness and other disabilities, many of whom have complex and neglected needs.

People Serving People, Inc.612-277-0256<http://www.peopleservingpeople.org/internopps.html>

Operates the largest homeless shelter in Minnesota. Provide residents with housing, meals and access to resources they need to move on to independence.

Rape and Sexual Abuse Center612-374-9077 / 612-825-2409<http://www.rsac-nip.org/home.html>

Provide phone and walk-in counseling to victims of rape, sexual assault, or abuse and to concerned persons. Receive training in counseling and advocacy skills, specializing in issues of sexual victimization.

Salvation Army651-638-3019<http://www.thesalarmy.com/vol/volunteer.htm>

Shelter Care Program at Booth Brown House is a short-term crisis intervention program designed for adolescents ages 12 to 17 whose behavior and emotional needs require twenty-four hour a day, seven days a week, highly structured and supervised care.

Student Experience651-638-3019http://www.studenttransitions.com/studentexperience/index.cfm?page=s_internshipoverview

Students work one on one with a client who has a physical, mental, or behavioral disability, in their home and assist them with their daily living skills.

United WaySt. Paul: 651-291-8300*Mpls: 612-340-7400<http://www.unitedwaytwincities.org/give/volunteer.cfm>

Unite caring people in building stronger communities and inspiring people to help others, increasing resources to meet needs, and fostering innovative solutions to problems.

Walk-In Counseling Center612-870-0565<http://www.walkin.org/volinfo.html>

Provides free counseling to those who are unsure where to go for help, or who are uneasy about seeking help from traditional sources.

Washburn Child Guidance Center612-871-1454<http://www.washburn.org/help/>

Nonprofit mental health agency serving children and their families.